

PRINCIPLES OF PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS

(ECTS 6)

GENERAL AND SPECIFIC COURSE GOALS

The main goal of the course is to teach students the basic concepts of probability theory and statistics, especially discrete and continuous distributions. The students will be introduced to the basic probability tools needed to model economic models in practice.